

AROUND THE WORLD IN 24 DAYS – HANOVER 21ST CENTURY SUMMER LEARNING PROGRAM

| | |
|---------------|--------------|
| South America | June 8 - 11 |
| Asia | June 15 - 18 |
| Africa | June 22 - 25 |
| Hawaii | July 6 - 9 |
| Italy | July 13 - 16 |
| Greece | July 20 - 23 |

SCIENCES INCLUDING SOCIAL SCIENCE

- Facilitator/Instructor
 - Responsible for creation of summer program instructional rubric, including all content areas and weekly activities – Note: rubric to be okayed by Kimberly Barre prior to implementation of the program
 - Responsible for facilitating the students through learning experiences related to science and social sciences as appropriate for each country of study
 - Flexibility must be integrated into the rubric to provide an opportunity to incorporate student interest areas during each week
 - Commitment to program and teach 2 three-week sessions:
 - South America– June 8 - 11
 - Asia – June 15 - 18
 - Africa -- June 22 - 25
 - Hawaii – July 6 - 9
 - Italy – July 13 - 16
 - Greece -- July 20 - 23
 - Demonstrated ability of classroom management skills & proven ability to connect with children in junior and senior high
 - Responsible for active integration of content areas during weekly educational field trips
 - Responsible for documentation throughout the program related to your content area for the purpose of distribution on the webpage and a scrapbook of the summer program
 - Responsible for integrating optional cultural costuming for student demonstration of favorite county at the end of the summer program

Location: Hanover Jr. / Sr. High Library (check-in); Hanover Complex

Program Hours 9 – 1:30, including ½ hour for lunch

- (instructors able to purchase daily lunches for $3.00/day)

Pay Rate:

- $12/hour non-certified
- $15/hour certified

If interested in position, contact Kimberly Barre (Miss Kimberly) at 719-683-6513

Position will be posted for one week, hiring to be finalized by May 24.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 24 DAYS – HANOVER 21ST CENTURY SUMMER LEARNING PROGRAM

| | |
|---------------|--------------|
| South America | June 8 - 11 |
| Asia | June 15 - 18 |
| Africa | June 22 - 25 |
| Hawaii | July 6 - 9 |
| Italy | July 13 - 16 |
| Greece | July 20 - 23 |

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

- Facilitator/Instructor
 - Responsible for creation of summer program instructional Rubric, including all content areas and weekly activities – rubric to be approved by Kimberly Barre prior to implementation of the program
 - Responsible for facilitating the students through physical learning experiences incorporating math for real life connections as appropriate for each country of study
 - Flexibility must be integrated into the rubric to provide an opportunity to incorporate student interest areas during each week
 - Commitment to program and teach 2 three-week sessions
 - South America – June 8 - 11
 - Asia – June 15 - 18
 - Africa -- June 22 - 25
 - Hawaii – July 6 - 9
 - Italy – July 13 - 16
 - Greece -- July 20 - 23
 - Demonstrated ability of classroom management skills & proven ability to connect with children in junior and senior high
 - Responsible for active integration of content areas during weekly educational field trips
 - Responsible for documentation throughout the program related to your content area for the purpose of distribution on the webpage and a scrapbook of the summer program

Location: Hanover Jr. / Sr. High Library (check-in); Hanover Complex

Program Hours 9 – 1:30, including ½ hour for lunch

- (instructors able to purchase daily lunches for $3.00/day)

Pay Rate:

- $12/hour non-certified
- $15/hour certified

If interested in position, contact Kimberly Barre (Miss Kimberly) at 719-683-6513

Position will be posted for one week, hiring to be finalized by May 24.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 24 DAYS – HANOVER 21ST CENTURY SUMMER LEARNING PROGRAM

| | |
|---------------|--------------|
| South America | June 8 - 11 |
| Asia | June 15 - 18 |
| Africa | June 22 - 25 |
| Hawaii | July 6 - 9 |
| Italy | July 13 - 16 |
| Greece | July 20 - 23 |

CULINARY ARTS

Position Filled: Tony Lunero

- Student Facilitator/Instructor
 - Responsible for creation of summer program culinary menu, including all recipes and ingredients for daily cooking activities. Menu to be approved by Kimberly Barre prior to implementation of the program
 - Responsible for facilitating the students through culinary cultural experiences incorporating reading and math for real life connections as appropriate for each country of study
 - Commitment to program and teach 2 three-week sessions
 - South America – June 8 - 11
 - Asia – June 15 - 18
 - Africa -- June 22 - 25
 - Hawaii – July 6 - 9
 - Italy – July 13 - 16
 - Greece -- July 20 - 23
 - Demonstrated ability to connect with children in junior and senior high
 - Responsible for active integration of content areas during weekly educational field trips
 - Responsible for documentation throughout the program related to your content area for the purpose of distribution on the webpage and a scrapbook of the summer program

Location: Hanover Jr. / Sr. High Library (check-in); Hanover Complex

Program Hours 9 – 1:30, including ½ hour for lunch

- (instructors able to purchase daily lunches for $3.00/day)

Pay Rate:

- $12.50/hour

CULINARY ARTS PARENT PROGRAMMING:

- Parent Facilitator/Instructor
 - Responsible for creation of a parent culinary summer program, including recipes and ingredients for weekly cooking activities. Menu to consist of recipes already demonstrated by the students earlier in the week
 - Responsible for facilitating parents through culinary cultural experiences
 - Commitment to program and teach weekly sessions with parents (one night per week) to align with summer programming schedule for students

Note: dates of parent programming still to be finalized with Tony's schedule

AROUND THE WORLD IN 24 DAYS – HANOVER 21ST CENTURY SUMMER LEARNING PROGRAM

| | |
|---------------|--------------|
| South America | June 8 - 11 |
| Asia | June 15 - 18 |
| Africa | June 22 - 25 |
| Hawaii | July 6 - 9 |
| Italy | July 13 - 16 |
| Greece | July 20 - 23 |

LEAD TEACHER/DAILY PROGRAM FACILITATOR

Position Filled: Kimberly Barre

- Facilitator/Instructor
 - Responsible for reviewing and approving all rubrics as presented by staff prior to program implementation
 - Responsible for discipline and behavior of students and staff
 - Responsible for assisting the staff as needed
 - Responsible for opening and closing the building daily
 - Responsible for maintaining a safe environment
 - Commitment to program and assist in implementing 2 three-week sessions
 - South America – June 8 - 11
 - Asia – June 15 - 18
 - Africa -- June 22 - 25
 - Hawaii – July 6 - 9
 - Italy – July 13 - 16
 - Greece -- July 20 - 23
 - Demonstrated ability to connect with children in junior and senior high
 - Responsible for active integration of content areas during weekly educational field trips
 - Responsible for documentation throughout the program related to your content area for the purpose of distribution on the webpage and a scrapbook of the summer program
 - Responsible for integrating optional cultural costuming for student demonstration of favorite county at the end of the summer program
 - Incorporation of the community, parents and peers for the end of summer program

Location: Hanover Jr. / Sr. High Library (check-in); Hanover Complex

Program Hours 9 – 1:30, including ½ hour for lunch

- (instructors able to purchase daily lunches for $3.00/day)

Pay Rate:

- $15/hour certified